What They Know About Indians.

St. Louis, Mo., September 28.—The Indian Commissioner held a secret session to-day and adjourned until this evening, when the hearing of testimony commenced. The gentlemen who were examined and gave statements were Alfred L. Riggs of the Santee Agency, Nebraska; Dr. S. W. Marston, late superintendent of civilized tribes in the Indian Territory, ex-Indian Commissioner F. R. Brunot; Rev. James H. Oilber of the Yakoma nation, Washington Territory, of long experience with the Indians; Rev. Dr. Lowry, Secretary of the Pennsylvania board of missions, and Rev. Dr. Strieby, Secretary of the American Congressional missionary association. It was the unanimous opinion of these gentlemen that it would be unwise to transfer the Indian bureau to the war department. It would not be any more economical and the Indians strongly oppose it. The object should be to give the Indians common school educations, teach them the English language and induce them to support themselves. Great confidence was expressed that under proper influence and administration of affairs concerning them they would become rapidly civilized. Many of them were now qualified to become citizens and have the general laws of the country apply to them. It was also the general opinion that if any change is made there should be an Indian department, presided over by a Cabinet officer.

A Steamboat Boiler Explosion.

NORWALK, Conn., Sept. 28.—The Norwalk and New York steamship Adelphi burst her boiler when a mile from her dock, at 8 o'clock this morning, while on her way to New York. She was immediately towed to Gregory Point. Six were killed and some twenty badly scalded. The boiler blew out the starboard side of the roof. The hull and machinery were little injured.

The following is from the South Norwalk Sentinel extra: The boiler of the steamer Adelphi, just as she was being lowered down to approach the dock at Darion's Point this morning, exploded with terrific force, tearing away the main deck, the boiler hatch and a portion of the saloon on the port side, and instantly killing several and precipitating others into the water. The bodies have not been found. The boat left her dock at this city about the usual time, and had probably 200 passengers on board. It is impossible at this time to ascertain the full extent of the accident and the names of all that are killed or injured.

Yellow Fever.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28.—Deaths 55; cases reported, 159; from noon to 6 p. m., 18 deaths were reported and 101 cases, 39 of which date prior to September 25th.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 28.—Forty-one deaths are officially reported by the Board of Health for the past twenty-four hours, ending at six o'clock to-night.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 18.—The prospects are more favorable for checking the yellow fever at Gallipolis. The weather is cool, and the prospects for frost are good. The two cases in town are both improving. A Mrs. Brown, in the infected district below the city died of yellow fever yesterday. Natchez is entirely free of fever.

One death occurred at Canton yesterday and twenty-one new cases.

Physicians ordered to Holly Springs, Miss., have been forbidden to pass through Cedar Keys, Fla., by the Health officers.

Governor Nicholls of Louisiana has received $300 in gold from American residents in Mexico, through Minister Foster, for the yellow-fever sufferers.

Good Cause for Complaint.

NEWPORT, September 28.—Several tax-payers petition the Supreme Court, in session at Providence to-day, to enjoin the City Treasurer forbidding the payment of bills contracted for a ball given by the city of Newport to the officers of H. B. M. steamer Bellephon on September 9th. To-night citations were served by the Sheriff on David M. Coggeshall, City Treasurer, to appear before Judge Duffee, at Providence on Monday and show cause why the bills should be paid. Dissatisfaction is felt by a large number of tax-payers because they did not secure tickets to the grand ball. Only a few select persons in Newport received invitations. The indignation of the city government and the aristocracy at the course taken by the tax-payers is great. The bills amounted to $3000.

Clever.

A New Haven policeman, who doubtless has been there before, has patented an improved club for guardians of the peace. It is of hickory, covered with a nice brass sheath painted to resemble wood. When, as is his custom always, a rough seizes the officer's baton and pulls at it vigorously the sheath slips off, the rough comes down with emphasis upon his back and the officer clubs him.

A Family in Morocco.

MADRID, Sept. 28.—Information has been received here that numbers of inhabitants are dying from starvation at Fez and Mequinez Morocco.

Silver Excitement in Colorado.

DENVER, Colorado, September 28.—The immense yield of the silver mines in the new district at Leadville, Colorado, has produced an extraordinary influx of miners and capitalists. Three railroads are extending branches towards Leadville. The Denver and Rio Grande, and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe companies are each vigorously pushing their Leadville extensions, both routes being located through the same canyons and valleys. It is publicly announced here that the former company has contracted for the immediate grading and equipment of the entire line. A large force of laborers has been employed there, for it is believed the completion of the road will enormously increase the silver yield by rendering profitable a very large portion of low grade ores now neglected on account of expensive transportation.

The Last Dakota Stage Robbery.

DEADWOOD, D. T., September 28.—The coach arriving this evening confirms the report of the coach robbery at Canon Springs station on Tuesday. Campbell was killed almost instantly. Hill, one of the messengers, was dangerously wounded and will probably die. Captain Smith was slightly hurt by a ball grazing the top of his head, rendering him insensible. Scott Davis escaped unhurt. Two of the robbers were badly wounded—one being shot by Davis and the other by Hill, who fired through a window in the back of a barn after being hurt. The coach was run into the timber, and but a short time was occupied in opening the safe, which contained $25,000 in gold bullion, some gold jewelry and a small amount of currency—all of which were secured by the robbers.

Austin's Private Papers.

[S. F. Chronicle.] Letters of special administration have been issued to Public Administrator Doolan in the matter of the late Alexander Austin's estate. Mr. Doolan having been requested by W. E. Dean, the holder of Mr. Austin's private papers, to take charge of them. Mr. Dean, Mr. Doolan and their attorneys, Joseph Austin, brother of the deceased, and the attorney of J. M. Walker & Co., the firm of which the deceased was a member, were in consultation yesterday afternoon in relation to the disposition of the papers. They are known to contain information relating to the missing tax money. Joseph Austin abandoned his claim as next of kin to administer upon his brother's estate.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Don't Forget It.

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not heeded, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, OGDEN & SON, MAKERS. au7 eod

THE STATE TICKET.

We do not believe that Republicans have been offered such a feast in their State ticket, for the last ten years, as that offered them by the State convention at Eureka. At the mention of John H. Kinkadee, we have seen a score of Democrats forsake their allegiance and declare that they would support "Henry Kinkadee against anybody." All this because the people of this State have wearied of incompetency, and want some one who can fill the gubernatorial chair. The old idea made out the Governor of a great commonwealth, to be a man who was honored and respected by his fellow citizens for gentlemanly and scholarly attainments. Mr. Kinkadee possesses these characteristics, and the people seize upon the fact, as a relief from the disgrace which has made their State notorious for the past eight years. We most heartily endorse this desire on the part of our people, and hope they will rebuke incompetency by a magnificent Kinkadee majority at the polls.

R. M. Daggett for Congress. The announcement is entirely sufficient to make every Republican heart beat quicker, and call each impulse and element of the old time loyalty, back to life. He is a man who has been true, not to men but to principle. He has remained poor in purse, because he was rich in mental and moral worth. In the night of Republicanism this man sustained the cause which was with universal liberty and Republicanism. He has never faltered in his honest and fearless course, nor has he ever sought reward. He does not seek it now, but the party of his choice, feeling that a time had come when the old spirit should be revived, and the old principles sustained, the first Republican was naturally the choice for the most important duty. In this intent R. M. Daggett has been placed before the people for Congressmen. He should receive the suffrage of every Union man in the State of Nevada.

For Lieutenant-Governor, Harry Mighels of Ormsby, a staunch Republican, an able parliamentarian, is our choice. Mr. Mighels has maintained Republican principle, musket in hand. His physical force is well-nigh spent and most of it was given upon the battle field, in defense of the Union, which good men say shall continue forever. Even now, he has but risen from a sick bed to which honorable wounds confined him, to be endorsed as an exponent of his party faith. Harry Mighels is the peer of any Republican in energy or ability, he is the superior of any man in Nevada as a parliamentarian, and as a competent presiding officer, he is in accord with the needs of to-day and will be elected. The remainder of the ticket needs a good word, but we have not space in which to speak of it to-day. At another time we shall take pleasure in showing its strength and general characteristics. In conclusion we may say that the State ticket is made up of Republican strength and ability, and that voters will cast their ballot this year for real issues. There will be nothing extenuated or set down in malice. The vote will voice the public will, and we have no fear of the result.

NEW VOLUME.

To-day the GAZETTE enters upon its sixth volume. We are glad to be able to say that the GAZETTE is now more prosperous than at any time in its history. It is not in the nature of boasting to say that we think that the GAZETTE is entirely deserving of the confidence shown in it by the people, and the liberal patronage which is the satisfactory expression of that confidence. The paper has never truckled, and its mind has been spoken freely, earnestly and sincerely on all public questions involving the welfare of the people of Washoe county. There is not a newspaper in the county more anxious to do what is right, and none freer from all influences which might tempt or force it into falsity for interest sake. That is a pretty good journalistic platform, and we expect to hear from admiring contemporaries on the strength of it.

The Reveille comments on a proposition to hold a Democratic love feast somewhere in the sage-brush, and says in conclusion: "We would give all our Sierra Nevada to hear Governor Bradley 'address' the meeting. 'My sons, I'm blest to go to Kearson to see Garrard, and I can't make you no speech to-night; so please excuse me.'"

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The delegates from all precincts of the county assembled in person or by proxy at Smith's Academy of Music on Saturday last. The platform adopted and which we published in Saturday's GAZETTE, speaks for itself. Under the head of nominations the following choice was made as representing the Republicanism of Washoe county:

State Senator—C. C. Powning.
Assemblymen—J. P. Foulkes, E. A. Underwood and W. E. Price.
Sheriff—A. K. Lamb.
Clerk—C. R. Wickes.
Assessor—W. F. Everett.
Treasurer—D. B. Boyd.
Supt. Public Instruction—A. Dawson.

Commissioners (long term)—R. H. Kinney; (short term)—E. Olinghouse. Recorder—R. H. Wright. Administrator—C. W. Jones. The platform recommends reform in the management of county matters, and endorses the State convention. It also endorses J. P. Jones and forbids any tampering with the bullion tax law. The GAZETTE's proposition in regard to the fallibility of county central committees was maintained and absolute set down as a thing of the past. In regard to the candidates the GAZETTE sees no necessity for eulogy at this time. There will be time for that when the little jealousies and disappointments have worn away. We have said that certain men were unworthy of nominations at the hands of any party, and see no reason for changing that opinion. The ticket is mainly good and we shall have a warm word to say for it at the proper time.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is within our knowledge that the powers that assume to control the Republican party in this State have a plot on foot to shut out John P. Jones for re-election to the United States Senate. As that plot develops and the campaign advances, we will "give away" all we know about it. It is important for this State that the Silver Champion shall be re-elected to the Senate, and it will be a crying shame if he is defeated simply that the ambitions of a few selfish schemers may be gratified.—R. K. Reville.

Fred Hart of the Austin Reveille is lifting himself clear off his feet with his frantic barks at Daggett. He is yelping himself into a fearful temper and has neither time nor inclination to write anything worth reading. The Reveille, heretofore one of the smartest little papers in the State is now becoming one of those wearisome exchanges from which the wrapper is torn with reluctance.

The Enterprise misrepresents the Reveille when it asserts that we accused John H. Kinkadee of being a bonanza candidate. We have never even intimated such a thing and have said squarely that Kinkadee was free from bonanza or other monopoly influences, and that he scored to receive his nomination on any but honorable terms.—Reville.

San Jose Mercury: A Bostonian writes to a friend in this city as follows: "Your Dennis is here with his sand lot. A little boy, a neighbor of ours, went to hear him. The next morning there was a scene at the breakfast table. Boy to father: 'Here, you old blood-sucker, pass along them hell-bound blackberries.' Call home you Dennis."

Breezy editorials on base-ball are now the attraction in the Nevada Transcript, also a fresh and exhaustive advertisement of Heald's business college.

WILD GIRLS.

(Los Angeles Express, September 14th.) Two girls, whose respective ages come within the limits of 14 and 17 years, concluded, the other day, that they would see something of the world. One of them abstracted $1000 from her father's till, and the other relieved her sire of $60. The two then made a descent upon the dry goods stores, and supplied themselves with $300 worth of clothing, trunks and traveling paraphernalia. After their effects were packed and sent to the depot, they concluded, as a parting salute to their consciences, that they would go and make confessions to a Priest. This they did in due form, and, however, the good Father took occasion to open a speedy communication with the parents of the young fays, and a little quick, decisive action resulted in their apprehension just as they boarded the train. They were taken to their homes, and for the present their knowledge of the world will consist chiefly of what they can imbibe in protracted lectures under the parental roof trees. The girls had a notion they would go East. As they are both members of good families, and it is evident that their conduct was inspired chiefly by giddiness, we spare them the ignominy of parading their tames in print.

THE TULLIS MURDER.

Dye and Anderson to be Held Without Bail—Clark to be Admitted to Bail in $7500.

SACRAMENTO, September 28.—In the Tullis murder case, to-day, Justice Alexander said that so soon as the testimony is written up he shall admit Clark to bail in the sum of $7500 and hold Dye and Anderson for murder without bail. The testimony is all in. Nothing particularly new was developed during the examination. In addition to the facts already published the only testimony implicating Clark was proof of the statements by Anderson that Clark knew all about the murder before and after the deed; and that Clark, after the murder, took Anderson in a buggy from Sacramento to Nicolas, and that they had a signal system of correspondence by which Clark could warn Anderson of danger. Two or three of these signal letters were introduced. The Justice held that the statements of Anderson in Clark's absence could not bind Clark or be used against him, and hence was strongly inclined to discharge Clark altogether, but finally concluded to hold him to bail, as Clark offered to give bail if permitted. The prosecution do not believe that Clark can give bail, and expect on the trial to still more closely connect him with the murder. In the examination to-day the Sheriff's officers gave a detailed account of still another instance where Anderson, since his transfer to the jail and since his published confessions, to-wit: on Sunday, September 1st, and in the office of the Sheriff, again told the whole story of the horrible crime, and how it was accomplished and why, and who were the murderers and accomplices. The story was about the same as set forth in Anderson's first and original confession. This latest confession was made in the presence of Dye and Clark, who remained silent. They were told before Anderson began his statement that they might make statements also, or decline to do so, and the latter course they choose, Dye only remarking that the others were doing all the talking, and either Dye or Clark asking the Sheriff's officers and prosecuting attorneys who were present what sort of a court it was they were holding. To-day, in court, Anderson took a marked interest in the defense, kept close to his counsel, frequently whispered to him, and often he and Dye put their heads together in consultation. It is now evident that Anderson goes back on his three several and uniform confessions, and proposes to fight for his life.

Black Hills Amusements.

DEADWOOD, September 28.—J. M. Whitton of the Pioneer is in from the scene of the stage robbery and murder, having ridden eighty-five miles in fourteen hours. The Spearfish vigilance committee, which hanged Davis and Keating a few days ago, are on the warpath, besides many of Deadwood's most prominent citizens. The party is armed with ropes, intending to execute on the spot anyone found guilty. They sent a man out of the country yesterday under guard. The undertaker says the messenger shot is not expected to live another day. The whole country is aroused, and it is altogether probable that many vagrants and cut-throats in this city will be served with summary notices to quit the town. The robbers have been heard from at Slate creek, thirty miles from the scene of the robbery.

Later.—A man just in from pursuit of the stage robbers and murderers, reports the capture of John Brown at the station where the murder occurred. It is thought he was a spy. The informant pointed significantly upward and drew a finger across his neck when asked what was done with Brown. Parties in town are being shadowed, and hanging may occur at any time.

Sixteen mules were stolen from Sulphur Springs, seventy-five miles away, on the Bismark road, Thursday night. The pursuers think the thieves are Indians.

Lieutenant Nave arrested two soldiers here to-day for stealing his horse and watch.

That Insult to Mrs. Kearney.

(Elko Independent.) The telegraphic report of an outrage being attempted upon the person of Mrs. Denis Kearney, upon the train near Ogden, a couple of days ago, is positively denied by the company. The charge was against a train man of the Central Pacific, and the company took immediate steps to ascertain the facts in the case with the view of bringing the offender to justice, they being unwilling to rest under the stigma of retaining in their employ so base and dangerous a man as this employee was represented. A thorough investigation of the case however, clearly showed that no insult whatever had been offered or intended to the lady, she having merely been requested two or three times by the person in charge of the car, to change her position upon the seat she was occupying, as she was barring the passage. In the interest of humanity, the traveling public, and the railroad company, we cheerfully give place to a refutation of the slanderous report which has already gained publicity and can be productive of naught but injustice and misrepresentation.

The Estate Appraised in Total at $9,655,459 77.

(S. F. Chronicle.)

The appraisers appointed by the Probate Court—Cornelius O'Connor, H. H. Webb and C. Mc. DeLaney—to prepare an inventory and appraisal of the estate of W. S. O'Brien, lately deceased, yesterday filed the following schedule, which places the total value of his effects at $9,655,449 77; the principal items of which are as follows: Real estate, $229,493 50; furniture and paintings, $26,353 50; books, $283 50; cash balance, Nevada Bank, $58,858 01; jewelry, $794 one-third interest in Ewing, Plum & O'Brien, $20,000; interest in firm of Flood & O'Brien, $2,377,990 23; 750 shares in Nevada Bank, valued at $140 a share, $3,325,000; $2,500,000 four-and-a-half per cent United States bonds, valued at $102 50, $2,562,500; 1000 shares Gas Company's stock, $92 500; 1500 shares Pacific Mill and Mining Company, $130,875; 250 shares Pacific Wood and Lumber Company, $15,450; 937 1/2 shares Golden City Chemical Works, $44,531 25; 250 shares Selby Smelting works $81,500; 3984 3/4 shares Virginia and Gold Hill Water Company, $99,609 35. In the inventory are included notes to the face value of $279,972 35, the actual value of which, however, is much less. The Sutter street residence, purchased from Senator Sharon for $329,000, is appraised at $160,000. The amount credited as United States bonds is supposed to represent the value of the mining stocks held by Mr. O'Brien, which were sold, as directed, immediately after his death, the money having been invested in this way according to provisions of the will.

It Was Muggins.

(Saratoga Letter.)

I witnessed a sight a few evenings ago which could be worked into a negro farce. A young man, well dressed and wearing a large diamond, was seated on a bench, his arm encircling the supple waist of a beautiful female. The pair conversed in whispers, and I took it for granted that they were lovers, perhaps engaged to be married. While the pair were whispering some sweet nothings to each other, a couple of middle-aged gentlemen approached, talking together in this style:

No. 1—"You say you want a wife, Smith, old boy. I suppose it must be a young one." (Digs his companion in the ribs.)

No. 2—who is a wealthy Boston pork-packer—"Of course I do. I wish you had a daughter, Earl."

No. 1—"I have, old boy, and if you can win her she is yours, with my blessing. Evelyn seems to be in love with Percy Marchmont, son of a Fifth avenue banker, but I will cure her of that if you want her, Smith. Ah there she is now (points to the pair seated on the bench); as I live, that rogue Marchmont is kissing her."

No. 2—"Marchmont! what do you mean?"

No. 1—"Why this is Percy Marchmont, a very wealthy young gentleman, who is sitting beside Evelyn."

No. 2—(Shouts) "Muggins!" The lover jumps to his feet, and upon seeing the pork-packer beats a retreat. As the young man sails away No. 2 says: "He is an employee of mine, John Muggins. He has charge of the pickled pigs' feet department." Lady faints. Tableau.

Shocking Accident.

NEW YORK, September 28.—A sad and fatal accident occurred shortly after half-past 11 this morning at the Long Island railway crossing at Atlantic and Brooklyn avenues, Brooklyn. It appears that as the funeral of Patrick Duffy was crossing the railroad track a coach in the procession, driven by Patrick McNamara, was struck by a locomotive. The carriage was crushed with tremendous force against a platform and the railing of the station. Miss Mary Redwood, aged 16, and Mrs. Stephen Callihan, who were in the carriage, and the driver were instantly killed. The children of Mrs. Callihan—Teresa, age 13; Cecilia, age 11; and Thomas, age 8—were seriously injured. The carriage was completely demolished and one of the horses killed. The engineer, conductor and flagman have been arrested.

JOTTINGS.

—Irwin Ayres, of Camp Bidwell, is in town.

—The Democratic county convention meets to-morrow.

—The summits of the mountains to the west are capped with snow.

—The wind howled last night like a defeated candidate. It was likewise cold.

—Governor Kinkadee passed through Reno on Sunday morning on his way home.

—R. P. Ferguson (Old Shingles and Things) is in town to-day looking rosy and virtuous as ever.

—Tom Norcross wants bids for the restaurant, lunch stand and target range privileges at the track during fair week. Apply at the postoffice.

—Notice is given elsewhere in to-day's Gazette to subscribers to the Pacific Gold and Silver Mining Co. that the stock is ready for delivery.

—The Georgia minstrels, all in gaudy uniform, paraded the streets to-day, discoursing good music as they marched. They are "a foine body av min."

The Georgia Minstrels.

Callender's Georgia minstrels, the original troupe of genuine negroes, twenty in number, will appear at the Academy of Music this evening. The company is under the charge of J. H. Haverly. In Boston 40,000 people attended them in four weeks, pronounced by the Boston Herald, to have been "a rush unparalleled in the history of negro minstrelsy." They received three letters of commendation from the Hon. William Lloyd Garrison, the poet, Longfellow, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Miss Clara Louise Kellogg, and others. In Washington, recently, they were attended by the Vice-President, Secretary of War, and other members of the cabinet, besides a host of leading home and foreign dignitaries. The New York Herald says "they far excel their white imitators." In Salt Lake they opened to a $1000 house.

The Coming Fair.

As the time for the opening of the State fair approaches, the signs become stronger that in everything that goes to make a good exhibition, it will be the best fair that has ever been held in Reno. The cattle display promise to be especially fine, and sheep and Angora goats will be a feature. Colonel Younger, of San Jose, will be here with a large herd of short-horns. The races this year will be better here than were those at the recent Sacramento fair. There will be no hippodroming.

Workingmen's Primary.

The Workingmen held their primary election on Saturday night and chose the following delegates to the county convention, which meets on Thursday: Alvaro Evans, Thos. J. Holt, R. F. Fryer, Wm. Hamilton, R. P. Greeley, J. Gullion, Jas. Sullivan, A. D. Dawson, C. C. Martin, John Hoy, A. Denning, G. Bianchi.

About eighty votes were polled.

Mr. Olinghouse was declared the nominee.

FOR RECORDER.

R. H. Wright and W. A. Treadway were placed in nomination. Mr. Treadway made a short speech, in which he said he endorsed the ticket, but as it seemed the sense of convention that Mr. Wright be the nominee, he cheerfully withdrew, pledging himself to support the entire ticket.

FOR TREASURER.

D. B. Boyd and M. C. Lake were placed in nomination.

First ballot.—Boyd received 42 votes and Mr. Lake 8.

Mr. Boyd was declared the nominee of the convention.

The next in order was the nomination of

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

William Cain, the present incumbent, John Bowman, S. A. Mann, Pierce Evans and T. V. Julien, were placed in nomination. Mr. Julien declined.

SUP'T. OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

being declared in order, Dr. Dawson and L. S. Burchard, were placed in nomination.

Dr. Dawson received 33 votes and Mr. Burchard 17.

Dr. Dawson having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared the nominee.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.

C. W. Jones was nominated by acclamation for Public Administrator.

Moved that the Secretaries and Sergeant-at-Arms receive fifteen dollars apiece, and after paying other expenses, the balance of the money be returned to the central committee.

Adjourned sine die.

After the convention adjourned the Reno delegation met and organized by electing A. J. Hatch president and A. H. Manning secretary.

They then adjourned to meet at Judge Richardson's office Tuesday evening.

An Unlucky Dun.

An ex-delegate from Glendale was sitting in front of a store on Plaza street about noon to-day, when a fat little German tradesman approached him and demanded four dollars and a half which he claimed the delegate owed him. The gentleman replied by raising, clutching the back of his chair with both hands and swinging that article of furniture aloft, brought it down with such force on the dun's head that that annoying person sat down on the sidewalk very suddenly. He continued to sit there rubbing his head, weeping bitterly and lamenting his misfortune in effective German. The ex-delegate stalked majestically away, without paying up.

Horses for the Carson Fair.

A lot of California horsemen passed through to Carson this morning. Among them were J. Williams, L. R. Martin and J. Cade. They had with them several runners, and the noted trotters Dirigo, Graves, Harry, Lady Emmett, Ashland, Gold Note and Doty.

Fine Grapes.

C. Buckley, who always has the finest fruit the season affords on sale at his store on Commercial Row, this morning sent to the Gazette office a box of Tokay grapes which are monsters as to size, beautiful in color, and delicious in taste. The Tokay is the superintendent of the vineyard.

The Kind of Man he Was.

He had been running for County Assessor or Clerk or something of that kind before the convention on Saturday and had been badly beaten. He behaved like a Democrat under the circumstances, for he took to drink. At 10 P. M., he remarked rather bitterly as he hoisted some more whisky to his head:

"I guess in all my recommendation to a Republican convention that I am served four years in the Union army and was wounded twice."

Eleven o'clock—I'm a mighty poor Republican, I am, and don't you forget it. I'm a talker, I am.

Midnight—I spent year 'an' 'alf in Annersonville (sic) an' I'm dern shorry, yeah shir, (sic) I'm all dern shorry I was in Fort Hamilton or Dry Tortugas. Thash the kinder man I am.

One o'clock—I'm mighty shorry war was ended (sic) as 'er (sic) did. I know 'at I killed one Johnny rob. Shot (sic) shot in er belly, by jingo.

Two o'clock—'ere (sic) now. 'I've give 'im er drink, betcherlife.

Three o'clock—'ere (sic) now. 'I've give 'im er drink, betcherlife.

Three o'clock—Any (sic) flier shays I'm shorehead's a (sic) liar. Hoo-ra-a-y!

He falls into a chair and snores dull care away.

Grand Jury Impaneled.

A grand jury was impaneled this morning, as follows: Irwin Crane, foreman; J. B. Whitehead, Henry Weston, B. G. Clow, J. C. Lewis, Geo. Becker, H. M. Frost, W. D. Harding, J. O. Gregory, Chris Haller, F. Lemmons, J. K. Everett, A. A. Longley, Wm. Steele, W. W. Morton, E. Twaddle, M. J. Smith. According to custom persons charged with crime and held to answer were present to make objection if they wished to any of the jurors. Harry Douglas, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was there; so was Emmett Jones, charged with burglary; likewise Robert McGowan, charged with grand larceny, and also Charles Lewis, accused of the same crime. These gentlemen very kindly refrained from objecting, and the grand jury proceeded to examine witnesses.

Unlucky Lots.

Messrs. Manning and Lake should awake to the fact that their lots in the vicinity of the new pavilion sadly need clearing. They are unsightly by reason of piles of nasty, half-burned rubbish. It will cost no more to clean them now than at any time. Visitors to the fair should be remembered. If the lots are allowed to remain in their present condition, it will be a disgrace to the town. There are also five nests of Chinamen between the pavilion and Virginia street. This is a clear violation of the terms upon which the property, upon which the pavilion stands, was bought.

Ratification Meeting.

On the evening of October 11th there will be a big mass meeting of Republicans of Reno and the rest of Washoe county, to ratify the nominations made by the State convention. It is expected that all the nominees from Governor Kinkadee down will be here and address the people. The meeting will be a sort of formal opening of the campaign.

Railroad Accident.

Yesterday afternoon about a mile to the west of Lathrop the east-bound passenger train ran into a bullock. The locomotive was thrown off the track and derailed. Fortunately no one was hurt, although the passengers were bounced around in lively style and pretty badly scared.

District Court.

In the District Court this morning in the case of Pierre Humbert vs. Nevada Quicksilver mining company, default was entered. In the case of D. A. Bender vs. Nevada Quicksilver mining company default was also entered.
